

ICL calls off World Series tournament following Mumbai attack

The Indian Cricket League called off the rest of its Season 2 ICL World Series tournament. The tournament was in its last leg in Ahmedabad when the terrorist attack in Mumbai took place on November 26th.

Kapil Dev, Chairman ICL Executive Board said "The teams have shown confidence in the ICL management and has supported the decision to call off the tour. In this hour of unprecedented tragedy in Mumbai we would like to extend all our support to the citizens of India."

Kiran More, ICL Executive Board member said "We have taken the decision of calling off the rest of the ICL World Series tournament. We believe that it is inappropriate to continue the series under the given circumstances. All players and officials are under appropriate security."
